Dear Randy,

On behalf of everyone at the International Rescue Committee, please accept my heartfelt thanks for your generous gift of $1,500. It is only with the support of compassionate partners such as you that the IRC can help so many uprooted people—not just to survive conflict or disaster, but to recover and regain control of their futures.

Your generosity enables the IRC to respond quickly and effectively when disaster strikes, providing water, shelter, sanitation, health care and other lifesaving assistance. And with your support, the IRC can remain for as long as it takes to help refugees and other displaced people regain stability in the aftermath of an earthquake or civil war—and move toward a more secure future.

With 68.5 million people displaced by war and persecution—more than at any time in recorded history—your generosity is especially appreciated. Thank you for being an important part of the IRC community and for your commitment to ensuring that the IRC will continue to be here for humanity.

Sincerely,

David Miliband
 President and CEO
